Questions Received

Q. Middle Atlantic has said that IRCS-3545 is not a valid product number. They stated that they do have an IRCS-3524, but be aware that it has 220 Volt fans, meant for use outside the USA. Can you confirm the correct product #?

A. That part number should be Middle Atlantic RCS-3524.

Q. There are no part numbers for the products, and I need those parts numbers to be able to quote best:

A. The part numbers for the AJA components are what AJA shows as the part number. The vendor should be able to identify the product (or equivalent) with the specifications provided.

Q. Item Samsung 1 UN32EH5000FXZA 32" Monitor w/ HDMI input for Video Switcher has been discontinued, do you have a specific item you want us to quote instead?

A. This appears to be a common issue as parts are discontinued and newer versions are released. The vendor is expected to provide the specified item or equivalent that meets the listed item specifications ie 32" monitor with HDMI input.
