Re: Questions and Answers about Bid Package

Question:

First question I have is in regards to the Production Technician Cert and Equipment description: “portable learning systems.” There are suitcase (with handles) portable learning systems and then there’s also benchtop portable learning systems on wheels - can you clarify if there is a preference?

Response:

There is no preference for "portable learning systems" as pertains to a "suitcase" model or mobile station. Bidders are asked to provide pricing and corresponding descriptions of the system(s) they are offering.
